IN THE PADDOCK.

The paddock was overcrowded. Sightseers were numerous and obstructed the movements of horses and their attendants. Scores of persons who got into the paddock early had to remain there and did not Pat Dunne sent Glassfull, the ness a race. favorite, to the post in the first race, but did not even get a peek at the horse while the field was running. Glassfull was hottest kind of a paddock tip.

John W. Gates was a frequent visitor. He looks a picture of health, said he never be-fore felt better and had been greatly benefited by nis trip abroad. He saw Rock Sand win the English Derby and lost ten pounds on Acefull, which carried the colors of Herman B. Duryea, one of the owners of Irish Lad. He had 10,000 francs on Quo Vadis, winner of the Grand Prix, in which Edmund Blanc's colors were first, second and third. Quo Vadis won by a head with Caius one side and Vinicius on the other, so nearly even that spectators could not separate them. Before the Derby was run he had frequent conferences with John A. Drake, during which the latter was visibly under a nervous Charlie Gates, quite jolly and apparently enjoying himself to the limit, was generally to be found in the company of his father.

John Duffy, the St. Louis turfman, who will be 83 years old tomorrow, was warmly greeted by many acquaintances. Although his weight has never exceeded 156 pounds he has been noted for his wonderful grip. Old as he is there are few men of any size that he cannot make yield in a gripping contest. A mutual acquaintance said to Doc Streett yesterday: "Shake hands with Mr. Duffy." Doc folded his arms and remarked: "I have."

James A. Murphy was a conspicuous figure in the paddock crowd. He backed Savable the future betting and being an intimate John A. Drake did not hesitate about telling that gentleman that he believed the substitution of Lester Reiff for Charley Gray was a mistake. He pleaded with Drake not to make the change, saying he failed to comprehend the wisdom of taking down a who has been winning with the colt putting up a rider who had not been winning. In explaining his position he said: "Mind, I make no reflection on Lester Reiff as a rider nor any comparison of the merits of the two riders. I simply maintain that it is time enough to take down a boy when he rides a losing race." He also tried to persuade the owner of Savable not to start High Chancellor, because the latter was not a Derby horse and might interfere with some the starters and cause disqualification affecting both horses

John A. Drake appeared relieved after the Derby had been decided. Asked for an expression about the event he said: "It was good race and was won by a good horse Picket is a better horse than I thought was. I would like to have won, but couldn't. My horse met with some rough treatment and I am pleased with the way finished."

Bernays, the eminent surgeon, who resides in St. Louis, was up to see his namesake perform and closely inspected him about saddling time.

arles T. Boots' comment on the Derby "It is too bad Irish' Lad didn't start, is a good colt, and I wish the people here Id have seen him run. His presence would have made the race so much more interest-

Edward Corrigan, who won the first Derby run at Washington Park, in 1884, says over sixty years of age, and will take 50 to 1 for $1,000 that he will win another before he dies. His opinion of yesterday's rawas: "I had a good view of the race. His opinion of yesterday's race watched it from the timer's stand. The winner is quite a racehorse. He led all the way, was never troubled because no other horse got near enough to trouble him, and he won easily.'

"Senator" Bell, John A. Drake's colored commissioner, was grievously disappointed, but not discouraged, by the result of the Speaking of Savable, he feelingly ed: "They beat him, but I think more Derby. remarked: of him than ever before. Folks said he couldn't go a mile and a half, but I nowknow he can. The gap he closed in three-eighths shows he can." the

WHAT THE JOCKEYS SAID.

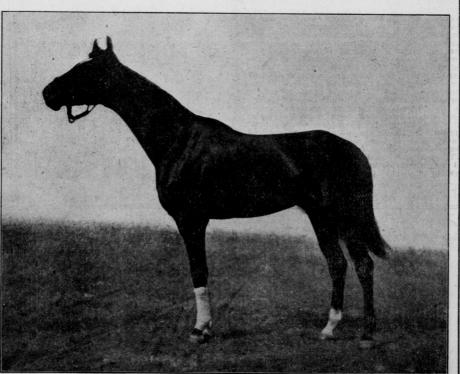

Jockey Helgesen, who rode The Picket was full of confidence before the Derby that he would win, and remarked in the paddock to several of the jookeys who rode in the Derby: "I'll walk in." John A. Drake's betting commissioner, "Senator," the remark, hastily reoverhear plied, "I'll bet you $100 to $60 that you don't beat Savable." "No, I wont bet you, but mark my words, the trimming I'll give Sav-able will be awful." After the Derby had been run Helgesen happened to see "Senator" in the paddock and saluted him with the remark, "I told you I would beat your bear."

Lester Reiff, who rode Savable, stated after the race that aside from meeting with some sharp interference at the half-mile post, the horse had no mishaps John Rodegap, who trained Spokane, the ling with some sharp interference at the berby winner of 1899, was a fixture in the half-mile post, the horse had no mishaps addock. "It's a good track, a fine day, the

On any racetrack, know the capacity of the grandstand, you have a reliable unit by which to estimate The Washington Park grandattendance. stand, seating and standing room, holds over 25,000 people. By that standard 75,000 persons were in the Washington Park grounds yesterday. Possibly more, certainly not less. Packed in front of the grandstand and extending down to the head of the stretch was a quarter of a mile of people. In the infield, in front of the club house and extending down to the three-quarters post at the head of the stretch, and beyond, was another quarter of a mile of people. It was not a thin fringe in either case, but a big, closely packed crowd extending far back on both sides of the track. The infield was a picture with its great mass of vehicles, brilpicture with its great mass of vehicles, priliant hued tents and great masses of varied color furnished by myriads of costly and beautiful costumes. The Club House, its verandas and grounds were thronged with all of wealth, beauty and fashion that Chicago can produce Alterether the attendance. cago can produce. Altogether the attendance was something that enforces on the Washington Park Club the absolute necessity of providing greator. sity of providing greater accommodations for American Derby days of the future.

As to the running of the Derby, record breaking contest as it was, it can be truthfully said that the chart published elsewhere gives as accurate a description as will ever be published. From the time that Dick Dwyer dispatched the big field of nineteen on its momentous journey. on its momentous journey, it was a case of one flying colt out in front setting a heartbreaking pace and the others essaying as best they might to overhaul those space-devouring feet. It was The Picket at the stand, The Picket at the quarter, The Picket at the half, The Picket at the three-quarters at the hair, the Picket at the three-quarters and never once in that last tremendous rush down the long homestretch was it anything but that great hearted colt out by himself, flashing over the velvety track with remorseless, unfaltering strides, the surest of sure winners, and in the fastest time ever rewinners, and in the fastest time ever re-corded in the history of the race. It was a singular feature that in the race he should duplicate his remarkable trial at Harlem a few days ago. Such a race is seldom won by a leader from start to finish and the fact that such was the that such was the case in this instance served to largely distract attention from the gallant but ineffectual efforts of the colts en-gaged in a bitter struggle to overtake their leader. Claude made one of these leader. Claude made one of those great stretch runs that have served to endear him to those who have seen him in action elsewhere and emerged from the race a greater colt that he had previously been estimated to be by his admirers. Bernays was knocked about from pillar to post, surmounted ed about from pillar to post, surmounted grave difficulties with the courage of a lion, and in his last grand rush fully justified the confidence reposed in him by "Rome" Respess. He is a good horse, destined to achieve notable triumphs in the future if all goes well with him. Savable was not disgraced. He ran a grand race and finished with unfaltering courage. The fortunes of the others can be gleaned from the chart of the others can be gleaned from the chart of the race and the stories of the jockeys printed elsewhere. It was a race long to be rememgreatest crowd I ever saw at a racetrack, and I'm here to stay because I can't get out and go anywhere else on the grounds," was his introductory announcement. After the Derby had been run he said: "There is a horse that ran to his work right up to the notch. Some people say work is not worthy of consideration. I say it is. I want horses to work for me. When I have them fit and they can't show good trials I know they are of no account."

It was paddock gossip that Joe Yeager had won largely on the Derby. He was said to have backed The Picket in the O'Leary and that he was simply not good enough to win. Jockey T. Knight, who rode Bernays, stated after the running of the Derby that he thought he had finished third with the best horse and that equally weighted with The Picket, Bernays would have proven an easy winner. "My mount had all the bad easy winner. "My mount had all the bad luck in the race and was repeatedly bumped and interfered with and at the three-eighths post, when I thought I was to have clear sailing, some horse jumped on Bernays and nearly knocked him down. In spite of all the bad luck, the horse finished with a great

last week by playing the INFALLIBLE SYSTEM. Have you done as well? How many turfites won last week the way they have been running, yet the players of the INFALLIBLE SYSTEM did not have a losing day, which proves the system is better than the best information and handicap figures. One of the horses that the system gave was

A 60 to 1 Shot, Won, and others at LONG ODDS. The INFALL-IBLE SYSTEM (copyrighted) is a gold mine, and is just the thing for turfites who are satisfied to win a certain amount, and is the ONLY system that guarantees to return your purchase money at the end of 30 days if a loss can be shown, which shows our confidence of its merits. It is the best and ONLY system which you cannot do without if you wish to make turf speculation profitable. Investigate at once. No system ever invented can show as good results on so small a capital as this system does. This wonderful system has received nothing but favorable comments from those who have operated same with great success. Do you know that losing is impossible because the capital is surrounded with so many safeguards, and gives only an average of nine plays a week, and produces winners at remunerative odds? It guards against persons overbetting themselves, and the selections are not based on jockeys, weights, odds, track conditions, distances, favorites, etc., and no doubling, handicapping or "doping" is required. It can be operated with a small capital either at the track, poolroom, or with a hand-book. Send for our "NEW BOOK-LET," which is mailed free, and the system will be explained to you and what it does, showing past results. Address Winner—B. c, by Falsetto—Voltario (trained by C. B. Reid).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 8 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. The Picket ran right back to his sensational workout. He displayed the highest order of speed throughout and the result was never in doubt. He won as his rider pleased. Claude made up much ground and finished with a fine stretch rush, easily wearing down Au Revior in the final sixteenth. He was interfered with at the start by The Picket, losing some ground. Bernays ran a splendid race, making up much ground throughout and finishing with a great burst of speed. He would have been second in another stride or two. Savable moved up fast when turning for home and, standing a long stretch drive in race horse fashion, finished with dogged resolution. Au Revior was a keen contender for one and three-eighths miles, but tired when the pinch came. Bad News ran at about an even rate throughout. Flocarline met with interference at the start from The Picket. She moved up some just before turning for home, but tired fast in the last quarter. Gilfain ran a cracking good race, tiring only in the final eighth. Linguist ran prominently for one and showed but scant speed throughout. He was also hampered in the mixup right after the start.

WANTED

Personal interview immediately with a few persons having $40 to $5.000 cash and "Horse Sense" to know a "GOOD THING" when SHOWN. Address by letter

E. Z. SURE, 3667 WABASH AVENUE, CHICAGO.

James is at Sheepshead

This is the track where I make the BEST RECORDS and seldom fail to HIT THE BULL'S EYE when I shoot. I have increased my force of track watchers and I have got the "INSIDE LINE" on all the STAR TRICKS that will be turned loose here. This track is a money maker IF YOU ARE IN RIGHT, and therefore I advise every turfite to get aboard the BAND WAGON at once. Those who received my information during the meeting at this track last spring, know what a CRACKERJACK I was when it came to handing out the REAL GOODS, and that it was the BANNER MEETING of the year. During this meeting several "GOOD THINGS" at long odds will be raced for the "goods," and, although some of them were beaten by the rankest kind of "crabs" at the Sheepshead meeting they will come suddenly to life and will, in my opinion, give 'EM ALL THE WINK AND GO-BY at this track. I cannot tell you of all the "GOOD TRICKS" that are in the STORE HOUSE ready to be put through

Some horses cannot run a lick without being given their tea, but the thing for turfites to know is when they are given their tea. If you want the REAL JUICY KIND OF INFORMATION, go to JAMES' DISPENSARY and get the real goods that he digs up for his numerous JOYOUS CLIENTS. Terms for SIX SPECIAL TRACK WIRES (sent in cipher), TEN DOLLARS. Mail me your name and address and I will send you a free copy of "HOW TO BET SUCCESSFULLY," which will interest every turfite.

An Opportunity for Those Who Cannot Play Themselves.

Should you be unable to operate yourself, send me a commission of $25 or $50, and I will place $5 or $10 straight on each one of my good things here at the track. When playing for you I charge nothing for my information, but deduct a commission of 20 per cent of the net winnings at the close of each week, mailing you the winnings by registered letter each saturday evening. Information will be wired or mailed to you each morning, as you desire. Send your acount at once, so as to take advantage of the numerous good things that I have in the near future. Address

C. H. James, P.O. Box 112, Gravesend, N.Y.

FREE TIPS!

Are you playing the WINNERS? Do you know there are sources of obtaining ADVANCE INFORMATION on the condition of the horses when it is the intention of the trainers to send their horses "OUT TO WIN" which the average bettor has not the opportunity to obtain. I have received so many requests for a trial wire of my DAILY PADDOCK SPECIALS that I take this opportunity to show you the kind of WINNING INFORMATION I wire to my clients each day, and that I am in reach of information that others cannot obtain. Whether you are a winner or a loser, let me convince you how easy it is to win big money when you have the right kind of information from inside sources; also the real value of a STABLE TIP. I have TWO STABLE KILLINGS that are going to come off at odds of about 15 to 1 on Thursday, June 25th, and Saturday, June 27th.

They will start in races on the above dates and have been specially prepared for the above dates and the stable has every confidence in their winning both EVENTS. In order to demonstrate that GOOD, STRAIGHT INSIDE STABLE INFORMATION can always be had by subscribing to my DAILY TRACK WIRES, I will send you the name of the horses on the above dates if you will agree to remit my fee (TWO DOLLARS) immediately after the horses win. To take advantage of the above FREE TIP in advance address at once, Winner—B. c, by Hamburg—Berriedale (trained by J. W. Rogers).

Went to post at 3:30. At post 5 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second driving. Inflexible led throughout and plainly had the most speed of his field at all stages. Mimosa beat the barrier and kept as close to her stable companion as she could right from the start and, when beginning the last quarter, failed to come on and pass the waiting Inflexible, which was then compelled to go on as danger threatened from Monsoon. The filly just saved second place and Redfern was fined $200 by the stewards for not allowing Mimosa to win according to declaration before the race. Monsoon closed a big gap from a bad start and at the end was going as fast as the winner. Bob Murphy got away very badly and worked through next to the rail, finishing fast and running a particularly good race. Gallant made up many lengths in the last quarter.

Time, 12½ 24½ 49½ 1:15½, 1:44½ 2:12½.

Went to post at 4:00. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won easily; second the same. Shorthose trailed the field early and commenced his move on the backstretch, picking up the field rapidly. He turned into the stretch at the leaders' heels and ran over fast in the stretch and was much the best. The stewards are looking into this contradictory colt's running. Charles Elwood was another and marked instance of sudden improvement. He made such fast running that Whorler could never get to him and sustained his speed in impressive style and, single-handed, could probably have taken the winner's measure today. Whorler probably grew discouraged when he found himself outrun by Charles Elwood, as he certainly showed the white feather at the end in only just getting home ahead of River Pirate. The latter was anchored by the big weight, but made an extra good showing, due to his predeliction for the sloppy going and he was wearing Whorler down for third place at the end. Meltonian went well for seven furlongs and tired and was evidently greatly handicapped by the going.

Scratched—(39419)Reliable, 126; 38854 Dauphin, 126; 39744 Merry Acrobat, 126.

Winner—Br. f, by First Tenor—Sweet Faverdale (trained by C. T. Patterson).
Went to post at 4:25. At post 3 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second driving.
Sweet Tone, capably handled, was easily the best. Always in a good position, she drew to the front in the stretch and won going away fast. Miss Shylock led for five furlongs and held on gamely. Sir Walt also showed great improvement in stamina and was a prominent contender throughout. The others were beaten off. Excentral finished under Gibson challenged him, but Crowhurst hustled Allan-a-Dale up a little bit and he won handily by one length, D. Gibson finishing one and a half lengths before Evening Star for second place.

The fourth race, a dash of seven and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, proved to be an easy thing for Warte Nicht. Flaunt, displaying much speed, showed the way to the head of the stretch, where Warte Nicht easily passed into the lead and remained there to the end, winning by two lengths from Flaunt, which beat C. B. Campbell a neck for second place.

The fifth race, a four and a half furlong scramble for two-year-olds, brought an unwieldly field of thirteen to the post. After a somewhat tedious delay at the post, caused the jockey on Instructor slightly injuring himself, they were sent away to a poor start. Copperfield at once rushed to the front and, showing a sharp turn of speed, remained there to the end, winning easily by two and a half lengths from Advantage, which finished a neck before Mast for second place. Peter Paul, the favorite, met with interference at the start and had little chance after the first quarter had been Peter J. Somero was practically left at the post.

The concluding race, a spin of seven and a half furlongs for three-year-olds and upward, was won by Eva's Darling, which finished a neck before Lord Touchwood, with Fading Light third two lengths back.

AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL.

The American Sporting Manual of 1902 contains all the racing at large, revised and com-plete up to the end of 1902; five handicapping systems with directions for their practical ap-plication, a table showing how to compute command, leading by one and a half lengths from Mary Lavana down the backstretch, with Beau Ormonde third. Turning for home, Beau Ormonde moved up fast on Gregor K. and had got on even terms with him when straightening out for the wire. For a moment near the last eighth post Gregor K. faltered, but rallied quickly in the final sixteenth and, in a stirring finish, beat Beau Ormonde a short head on the post. Bondage finished third six lengths back. Beau donne and Jim Taylor are suspended pendmg investigation into their ownership.

Farley is registered as the trainer of the latter. Farley himself disappeared last night and it was said that he went to Cincinnati.

for Washington Park with the horse Radford, which they purchased from J. W. Pugh Wednesday last. T. K. Lynch.

the Derby, returned last night to St. Louis. Jockeys Gray and Otis, who respectively rode High Chancellor and Gold Bell, were conversing in the paddock after the race concerning the race. Gray stated, when asked what was the matter with his mount, "Nothing, only he did not seem to have much speed." Otis on the contrary stated much speed." that he was cut off several times and at The Picket. In conclusion, he stated that I struck the stretch run, when I gave him his head and he came away as if the others were standing still."

Jockey Daly, who rode Claude, said after the finish in the Derby that his mount suffered from interference on the first turn, and again at the seven-eighths, where he was caught in a jam. At the half-mile ground, while racing on a in terms with Linguist and when about to egin his run, Gilfain crossed over and forced him to pull back to keep from going down. Jockey Helgesen was asked after the Derby what happened during the running of the race. "I don't know," was his ready answer.
"All I know is that I went to the front as soon as possible and I did not have time to look around me much to see what was going on behind me." Asked if he felt that he would be beaten after having set the pace

Jockey Troxler came here from St. Louis to ride Monsieur Beaucaire. The horse ran a disappointing race in the estimation his stable connections. Troxler stated that the horse would not extend himself on account of the crowd, and once when a man leaning over the inner rail took off his hat to cheer, he shied and tried to run to the outside fence.
